SPRINGDALE

A Guide Created for the Springdale
Walmart Contact Center Employees

The Springdale Chamber of Commerce welcomes team members of the Walmart Contact Center to our city. We know you may not be familiar with all Springdale has to offer but are confident you'll love us once you get to know us!

This New Employee Guide was prepared especially for you, to help you start the process of learning about this place we call home. We have included lists of businesses you might need, many just a mile or two away from your workplace, and always stand ready to field your questions about Springdale.

Springdale is the fourth-largest city in Arkansas and is where business giants with names like Tyson, George, Walker and Jones displayed an entrepreneurial spirit that lives on today. After work, take in a game at Arvest Ballpark, ride your bike along the Razorback Greenway or down Fitzgerald Mountain, skate at The Jones Center ice rink or stop by one of our Emma Avenue pubs. You'll see why we're making it happen in Springdale.
